Securities, Markets Continue to Drift Along Engly.

THERE ARE NO NEW CONDITIONS.

THERE IS NO EVIDENCE OF A GENERAL DISPOSITION TO DE-VELOP SPECULATIVE MOVE-MENTS, BUT RATHER A PRE-DOMINANT FEELING OF INDIF-FERENCE-SOME ACTIVITY SHOWN IN THE INDUSTRIAL LIST-THE STREET EXEMPT FROM POLITICAL INFLUENCES.

Special Correspondence of Intelligencer NEW YORK, Oct. 8.-In the securities markets, affairs continue to drift along in the easy oscillating fashion usually characteristic of the fall season. Operators have returned from heir summer recreation finding no new conditions or tendencies of striking importance, but rather a state of reaction from more exciting conditions occurting during their absence. They find no evidence of a general disposition to develop speculative movements, but rather a predominant feeling of indifference, following extensive realizations and recent apprehensions of a tions and recent apprenensions of a squeeze in the money market and an actessive contraction of bank loans. This lack of interest is also encouraged by the recent cutting of rates by the railroads, the effects of which are expected to appear in the forthcoming reports of their net earnings. The failing off in the seaboard receipts of grain and the indisposition of the farmers to sell wheat at present prices also contribute to this activity.

The general commercial movement affords a stimulus to the apeculative spirit, but rather causes some disapspirit, but rather causes some disappointment. Although reports from the Western section indicate a generality healthy condition of business and foreshadow a good aggregate for the full trade, yet there is a slowness and healtancy of movement that may be accounted for by the fullness of the stocks of merchandise, which naturally produces a process in the military spirit consequent upon the close of the war is accompanied by a corresponding abatement of the speculative spirit. ding

In the Industrial list, however, there is considerable activity, and the sales of these constitute a large proportion of the current transactions. The competition between the Sugar Trust and the new independent refiners is becoming so active as to induce free selling of the American Sugar Refining Company's shares; and a hitch between the members of a clique in American Tobacco has caused extensive selling in that stock. Taking the stock list as a whole, however, prices may be said to be more than steady, so that a moderate drop in prices would be quite likely to bring about some revival of buying. Still, a really active market and still more a built boom do not appear to be among the probabilities of the early future.

The recent importations of gold have placed the money market beyond any probability of a relapse towards stringency.

For the time being, Syall street is In the Industrial list, however, there gency.

For the time being, Wall street is comparatively exempt from political influences. Possibly, there may be in the hidden future diplomatic events that will have an important bearing on financial interests, but those chances are included in the enter into present. are too indefinite to enter into present calculations, what induced they may have applies to future rather than pres-ent calculations.

To sum up the pros and cons of the situation, we may cite as,— Against the Market: (1) The uncertainty as to the immediate future of the price of tobacco, also sugar, both being leaders of the market on the up as well as the down side. Recently their influence has been on the latter, side. It is pretty sure that there will not be a pronounced up movement in the market until these two important properties reverse their present action.

(2) The holding back of wheat by the farmers depriving the roads of immediate very large earnings. (3) The state elections in November. (4) The decision of the supreme court on the Missouri Trans-continental Traffic Association case, liable to be handed down next Monday or any Monday thereafter. (5) The low price of wheat and cotton as compared with last year.

As favoring the Market: (1) Good railroad earnings notwithstanding the holding back of wheat by the farmers. (2.) The growing ease of money. (3.) The sit is there now to our credit as represented by the large trade balance in side in large smounts when deceded, as it is there now to our credit as represented by the large trade balance in our favor. (4.) The enthusiastic and proud feeling of the American people as a result of our recent war. (5.) The continued large exports and the diminished imports. (6.) Every indication of a long continuance of prosperity resulting in the development of our year. stilling in the development of our yast territory and unequalled resources, increasing thereby to a prodigious extent the wealth of the nation.

FINANCE AND TRADE

The Peatures of the Money and Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The stock market to-day continued in the hands of the professional trading element. The transactions were of a small volume, and not widely distributed. Such as they were, they reflected a decidedly unsettled and hesitating frame of mind on the part of the traders. The opening tendency was downwards, affected by a break of a point in Brooklyn transit and continued pressure in Northern Pacific. The foreign markets were unstiled by the political outlook in France, tight money in Berlin and the public agitation in Spain for payment of interest on government bonds in pesetas instead of francs. This had some influence on the opening here, although Americans had been supported in London on orders from New York.

Strength in Tobacco, which rose 344 per cent, supplemented by support in Brooklyn transit, People's Gas and Manhattan and covering of shorts in Sugar checked the decline. There was a rally in Northern Pacific, which drove a rany in Norteen racine, which was ac-the shorts to cover and which was ac-companied by a rumor that conflicting views of the interests dominant in the party had been adjusted. The profes-sional traders then took the long side of Breadstuffs and Provisions. CHICAGO-Board of trade markets to-day were scriously affected by the revenue department ruling taxing scalping transactions. It caused at times an almost entire cessation of trading at one time, and the duliness was one of the principal features in the weakness shown by all markets. Wheat and oats closed 1/c lower. Corn was a shade under yesterday's prices, and provisions lost 5@10c.

Wheat showed weakness at the open-ing. Liverpool failed to respond to the sional traders then took the long side of the marker for a turn and there was a general covering of shorts. The appearance of the bank statement added to the bullish feeling, as it was fully as favorable as had been expected. Although the reserve requirements had been raised by $2.165,650 by reason of the larger deposits, the increase of $5.585,100 in cash left the surplus reserve $3,416,450 higher. The expansion of loans, though less than a million dollars, indicates the turn in the tide of the money market, and is the first increase in that item since September 2. The loan contraction from that date up to last Sat-low recovery to 83c. Most of the trading of the day was confined to the first hour. After that the transactions were few and fur between. The recar, incomations reverse department ruling that scalpers and others must pay taxes on all trade transfers appeared to paralyze trading. The duliness that resulted had a depressing effect on prices, and during the last hour December dragged around 25%. The ordinary news of the day did not receive much attention. Minneapoils and Duluth receipts were Lilicurs, compared with 1.377 cars last week and 1.144 cars a year ago. Chicago receipts were 209 cars, is of which were of contract grade. Primary receipts for the week made a total of 10,800,000 bushels, the largest on record. Clearances were ilght, amounting to only 185,000 bushels. Bradetreet's reported the week's clearances of wheat and flour from both coasts at 5,37,000 bushels, about 500,000 bushels over last year's figures. Brokers who work shipping business between here and the seaboard reported bids too low for business. The market continued duli up to the close, and the latest trading in December was the same as in wheat, and business was reduced thereby to extremely stender proportions. The day's fluctuations were confined to a marrow range, but the sentiment among traders rather favored the settimates. December started unchanged to '4' lower at 29%@29%c, and kept within a %c runge, closing at 29%c buyers.

within a ½c runge, closing at 29%c buyers.

Oats suffered with the sams affliction as the other grains, experiencing hard-dy sufficient trade to establish quotations. Receipts were 416 cars. May began ¾c lower at 23%c, and declined to 22%c bid, the closing price.

Disturbing yellow fever rumors from the south, in addition to the stamping out of the scalping element by the government tax, depressed provisions. Selling in a small way of ribs and pork by packers caused some concessions in prices. Meste shipments for the week were 19.518,000 pounds, and shipments of lard 14,826,000 pounds, and shipments of lard 14,826,000 pounds, and shipments of lard 14,826,000 pounds, and shipments of lard 16,826,000 pounds, and shipments of l corners nicely, yet with not much ripple. The skirt is unlined from the waist-line to the first rulle, the panel and lower part baving the usual lining. The top of the bank fastens smoothly, with neither pleat nor shirrings, under narrow straps, or with a row of small buttons and button-hales the length of the placket, or again with a double row of buttons laced across with tiny cord loops. The skirt is of circular cut the width of the botton being being a little over four yards. The proper cut of the gown can be obtained only by the use of the cut-paper patterns furnished by Harper's Bazar, where the gown appears.

The hat of pale brown felt is rolled upward at the side, and trimmed with two Mercury wings passing from behind puffs of a lighter-toned miroir velvet. A brown velvet romette is under the brim next the hair.

Quantity of material for gown—61/2 yards of broadcloth, 1½ yards of taffeta for blouse. CHICAGO-The cattle pens, as is usual on Saturday, were nearly all empty, and the market was in consequence practically a nominal one. The few offerings on hand were disposed of flow-ferings or hand were disposed of flow-ly, at unchanged prices More moder-ate offerings are expected next week than of late on account of the decline in prices.

There was a good demand for hogs, and prices once more ruled strong to 5c higher. Hogs sold at an extreme range of $3.402.85 for common to farcy lots, the bulk of the offerings crossing the scales at $1.5063.75. Stags sold at $2.75 63.25 and boars at $1.5062.50. Light weight pigs sold largely at $3.1063.30, heavier pigs fetching $3.4063.70.

The market for sheep and lambe was active to the extent of the supply, and prices ruled strong at the recent ad-vance. Lambs were salable at $4.256 4.59 for common up to $5.0066.20 for choice to prime, and yearlings sold as high as $4.75. Sheep were salable at

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK—The week's operations in the local dry goods market have been overshadowed by the course of the market for print cloths. Prices have declined in both extras and odd goods, the former falling from a nominal quotation of 2 cents to an actual selling price of 115-16 cents. At this price about 25,000 pieces were sold late in the week. Odd goods are quiet in nearly all lines, but they are in general not as low in price as print cloths. Staple cottons have shown very dull conditions. Both brown and bleached goods are quiet in all lines. Export sheetings and drills are dull, the demand for the China being still very unsatisfactory. Coarse colored cottons are firm and in continued quiet demand. White goods are in steady demand and featureless. Blankets and flannels show no change in any grade. Napped fabrics are firm and are being sold in fairly large quantities. There is no change in the print market.

Metals.

NEW YORK-It was a short day of small dealings in the market for metals. Buyers and sellers were equally indifferent and the situation taken genindifferent and the situation taken gas-erally lacked radical change. The metal exchange issues no report Satur-days.
